Nominations Now Being Accepted for DVM Appointment to ASBVME

The deadline for submissions is September 9.

Dear Alabama Veterinarians,

Nominations are being requested for the ASBVME DVM position that will become vacant on October 10, 2022. Nominations may come from any licensed veterinarian, licensed technician, or layperson in Alabama or via self-nomination. We will accept nominations through 11:59pm on September 9, 2022.

The oversight committee will be specifically targeting under-represented Congressional Districts. Congressional Districts shall be defined by the home mailing address of the nominee. The Congressional Districts that are in need of representation are Districts 2 and 6.

All nominees will be required to submit a signed nomination form (download below) showing willingness to serve, Curriculum Vitae (CV) and two letters of reference from ALVMA members, which will all be reviewed by the ALVMA Legislative Committee. If more than three names are submitted, the ALVMA membership will vote electronically. The three nominees receiving the most votes will be submitted to the Governor. You may click here to review the guidelines used in the vetting of ASBVME nominees.

The following position will expire on October 10, 2022.

Veterinary position currently held by Margaret H. Ferrell, D.V.M.

- Not eligible for another term at this time

As a reminder, veterinarian nominees must meet the following criteria established in the Veterinary Practice Act:

- Graduate of an accredited school of veterinary medicine
- Legal resident of Alabama
- Currently and validly licensed to practice veterinary medicine in Alabama
- Actively employed and licensed in the practice of veterinary medicine in the State of Alabama for the five years immediately prior to appointment
- Continuing at least 35 hours per week in the practice of veterinary medicine while serving on the board

We encourage you to submit your nominations now using the form linked below. Completed and signed nomination forms, along with a CV and reference letters, are due in the ALVMA office by September 9, 2022. Additional details are listed on the form.

Sincerely,

Frances Kendrick
ALVMA President
